CONSENT OF SURVIVING SPOUSE, IF ANY, AND CONSENT OF ALL HEIRS AT LAW

Please note that 14 V.S.A. Section 107(a) provides that if Consents are filed with the Court from all the heirs at law and the surviving spouse, if any, then a Will may be allowed without a hearing. If all consents are not obtained, then the Court shall schedule a hearing and notice shall be given as provided by the Rules of Probate Procedure.

We, the surviving spouse, if any, and the heirs at the law of the decedent, consent to the Allowance of the Will, if any, the Petition to Open Decedent's Estate and the appointment of the above as Executor/Administrator.

I acknowledge I have been served with the Petition to Open Decedent's Estate in the above entitle action, including all papers referred to in the Petition. I waive the right to object to any action of the Court, regarding the Petition referred to above, and I waived the requirements for a Hearing regarding such Petition.
